Singular or Plural Sort

Oh dear! Professor Punctuation has dropped her word cards on the floor and now they have become mixed up! The words all contained examples of the possessive apostrophe. However, some are singular nouns with apostrophes and some are plural nouns with apostrophes. Can you sort them into two groups in the table below to help her?

Singular	Plural

Challenge

Well done for completing the activity! Now write a sentence of your own using one of the plural nouns with a possessive apostrophe.

Singular or Plural Sentences

In the sentences below, an apostrophe has been used to show possession. However, in one option it shows an apostrophe being used with a singular noun and in the other it shows the apostrophe being used with a plural noun. Tick the sentence that shows the apostrophe being used with a plural noun.

Be the Teacher!

Professor Punctuation is marking homework but he needs help to complete all the work. Please be the teacher and mark this piece of work below. The children had to use apostrophes to show possession with plural nouns. Cross out the wrong apostrophes and add the correct apostrophe in the right place.

In the forest, the wolve's howls' echoed as the tree's branches' swayed in the wind. Underground, in the foxe's home, they huddled together to get warm. In the trees', the squirrel's feet pattered as they scrambled up and down the branches' looking for food. In a clearing, the childrens' hands' shivered with cold. A Parent's Guide to Apostrophes with Plural Nouns

In years 3 and 4, children will be taught to use apostrophes to show possession with plural nouns. This builds on the work they did in KS1 when they learnt to use apostrophes to show possession with singular nouns. If your child isn't secure on using apostrophes for possession with singular nouns, it would be best to revise this first. The following booklet can be used for revision:

Apostrophes with Plural Nouns

If the noun is a regular plural and ends with an 's', we just add an apostrophe after the 's'. For example:

The howls belonging to the wolves.

Should be written:

The wolves' howls.

However, not all plural nouns end in 's' - some are irregular like children and people. In these cases, we add an apostrophe and then an 's' ('s) to the end of the word. For example:

The books belonging to the children.

Should be written:

The children's books.
